

Dismissal Authorization

I certify that I am the parent of _____ (“student”), and I hereby provide dismissal instructions to student as follows.

School law requires students to comply with parents’ dismissal instructions. Student non-compliance is prosecuted in the school’s judicial system just as other infractions, if and when infractions are discovered. Staff and other responsible School Meeting members monitor students’ departures informally, aided by the “Official Goodbye” law, but the school cannot and does not assure that students always follow parents’ dismissal instructions.

[Choose only one of the following options, by placing an “X” in the box, and strike out the other two (unselected) options. If school district transportation arrangements have been made, then dismissal to school district transportation providers is automatically deemed authorized, in addition to authorizations provided below.]

- Unsupervised Departures. Student may leave school when and how she/he chooses and without supervision. I agree that the school’s responsibility for student ends for the day when student leaves school. This permission is granted as an “exception” under the school’s “Transfer of Responsibility” policy. The school shall have no responsibility for enforcing any additional conditions which may be arranged between parent and student.
- Parents Only. Student may leave only with a parent.
- Parents And Designated Others. Student may leave with a parent or with any of the following persons (who may also be called for transportation needs when necessary).

LIST NAME & PHONE NUMBERS (WORK, HOME, CELL)

Student agrees to leave school only as hereby authorized, and in compliance with school rules. Exceptions may be authorized by parent in writing or by email. I understand that responsibility for compliance rests with student. The school does not assure compliance.
